Commander's Commentary

Comrades,

As you read this newsletter, the end of this VFW year comes to a close. We have worked through a number of issues and are well on our way to getting things back to a normal (if there is such a thing) footing. As you have read earlier, this is my last article as your Commander. It has been a wonderful, although sometimes stressful, experience to work with you, our Auxiliary and Booster members, and the Canteen Staff to keep this Post moving forward. Just remember, that while Sandi is your new Commander, I will be there supporting her and the rest of the organization as the Quartermaster. I'm not going anywhere, just changing jobs. I want to thank all of the officers, committee chairs, and everyone in the Post for their support over this past 18+ months. We survived COVID, the IRS, the AGO and a bunch of other fun challenges.

Speaking of the IRS—We recently (about mid-May) were reinstated with our Tax-exempt status. As soon as that occurred, we completed the paperwork for our new bingo license, to include the eBingo machines. AS soon as the license is approved we will sign a contract and get the machines back in operation. I promise to let EVERYBODY know as soon as I can with the schedule.

Also, you may have noticed we have a few new/returning items in the Post.

First—the Queen of Hearts is back—$1/chance—drawings on Saturday evening at 8.

Second—We have Yahtzee—$1/roll/shift—We've already had two winners in the first 3 weeks!!

Third—We have changed Cable/Internet providers and now have DirectTV. This is a package deal worked with the National HQ to benefit posts. The first year of the NFL Sunday Ticket is free and 20% discount thereafter. We also made sure to get the sports packages for Big Ten and Ohio.

Thanks for your support and comradeship.

Yours in Comradeship

Jerry

VFW Auxiliary Members

This will be my last article for the newsletter. Thanks for the opportunity to be the interim President for Connie McCreary. She will be greatly missed. Newly elected President Sandra Hanson will take over for me. I know she will do an outstanding job.

The June 9th dinner will be prepared by Terri Tittl. She is planning to make Chicken Strips with all the fixings and dessert too! Linda Petrusch will be serving Meatloaf, potatoes veggies or salad and dessert. Carla is getting someone to do the June 30th dinner. Keep checking the board for news of all the dinners in June.

I hope everyone has a great summer. Temperatures are starting to heat up (and storms too!!!) so I am looking forward to a hot summer.

Best wishes to the new officers for 2022/2023 year. I hope you have a successful year.

Respectfully submitted,

Gloria Cwiklinski, Interim President
